PRISM Prisoners Refined In Strategic Motion

What is PRISM?

PRISM motivates prisoners to develop a productive sense of community by sharing views, beliefs, experiences, struggles, successes, and failures in an effort to assist in our daily struggles of life in prison and those who come after us.

What does being a member of PRISM require?

- Meeting on a weekly basis
- Founding members contribute to our "lopfund" which helps prisoners on specific types of Loss of Privilege status with hygiene items.

What are the benefits of PRISM?

- Sharing experiences and expertise
- Learning new things about each other
- Gaining beneficial knowledge to enhance lives, ours and others
- Combining talents
- Practicing public speaking if you want
- Get or give legal advice
- Help with Grievances and Disciplinary issues
- Unlearn selfishness
- Monthly Newsletter
- Assistance with hygiene for non personal, unselfish L.O.P.

What are some goals of PRISM?

- Develop unity among our General Population
- Consistently promote positive changes
- Create space for wild, unrestrained brainstorming

How do you become a member of PRISM?

Show up wherever you see us meeting whether there are 2 of us or 20, you are welcomed regardless of your history, crime, race, gender, religion, or anything else. You're better than good enough, don't hesitate to come and grow with us.

Arizona State Women's PRISM hopes for others to start on their yards, too!

Hello! This is HTMD, your favorite underground pinta-newsletter!!! Due to technical difficulties the last few segments of the year will have this same opening! Don't judge us, we are doing the best we can!

Here is a list of all 12 segments, if you want one come to a meeting and ask one of us for one. Most of us in PRISM don't have much money so we aren't able to keep copies on hand, but we will be happy to make them for you if you ask.

Issue 1 - PRISMs mission and the Tree-Tree interview

Issue 2 - HTMDs mission and Gender/Sex Terminology update

Issue 3 - Coverage of Perryville's Pro Palestine event

Issue 4 - GPs Responses to Surveys and eFiling issues

Issue 5 - MAT Program and JJ interview

Issue 6 - Are We Settling For UnFreedom? and Basic Grievance info

Issue 7 - 100 Definitions of "Terrorist" from the GenPop

Issue 8 - 100 Definitions of "Love" from the GenPop

Issue 9 - 100 Definitions of "Hate" from the GenPop

Issue 10 - Fighting For Our Rights and the Joycee interview

Issue 11 - Convict2Convict PRISM talks Zionism to Nakba and Nakba to 10/7

Issue 12 - Social Structure on the Yard

We appreciate your participation in all the surveys we did this year for HTMD and for improvements and proposals on the Unit. We learned a lot about each other and we have accomplished some wonderful things this year!

The Library is no longer allowing us to copy artwork, which sucks for those of us who send art out, and it sucks for HTMD too because we wanted to add your art to next year's Issues. That's OK though, fuck em, we'll work it out! If you have a poem, an essay, a problem, advice or anything else you want to share, please get with one of us on the yard and we'd be happy to include your work.

This is a community newsletter, and we don't kiss ass to get it to you. We are a pig-free organization and want to help each other learn how to work together, doing what we can, while we can, to practice as much autonomy (self-reliance) as possible.

The design of prison is to make it completely dependent upon staff, even as they claim to be readying us (some of us) for freedom. It is a lie. They know very well without practicing autonomy, without the ability to make substantial choices, without the slightest semblance of freedom, you will fail. They act like we are too stupid to make choices to condition us for failure. Recidivism is their business, literally, don't be manipulated by their federally funded bullshit that claims to be aimed towards keeping you free. Don't be made to believe they have all the answers, they either don't know the answers or lie the majority of the time. You will stay free by staying away from them, not by staying up under them.

As mentioned, PRISM is autonomous, and we don't have leaders or authorities in our group. We meet as equals and share what we know with each other.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS FOR 2024

Gaining Knowledge

Starting PRISM and HTMD

Sharing knowledge about things we can't print

Completion of Jacquie's Trauma Counseling

Restarted Meetings after the Brutal Summer

Started Writing the play "We, Not Me"

Poetry Readings

Kryas' Art Class

GOALS FOR 2025

Get other autonomous groups started around the Yard

Fight to get a GED teacher

Fight to be allowed to purchase our Medical Records

Fight to paint our cells

Fight to get copays stopped again

More contributions for HTMD (articles, poems etc)

Support each other and gain knowledge so we rarely need to ask staff for anything.

We move our meetings around depending on ICSs and other lockdowns, but we meet weekly, we'd love for you to come! You can meet with us if you want, but you don't have to meet with PRISM to contribute to HTMD. It takes us time to get everything together but we do our best and we appreciate your patience as we try to make our environment better in a clean, healthy, autonomous (pig-free) way that improves our lives, increases your odds of not coming back in a real, true and honest way and, incidentally, makes their jobs easier.

Your Lifer friends are sick and tired of seeing you come back! We need you to get out and STAY OUT!

In Struggle,
Arizona State Women's PRISM
